

Sinclair Broadcasting's forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry program days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for corporate profits and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to restore media ownership rules.

Thank you.
